ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Sign ups for West Central Youth Camp and Teen Leadership Camp are on the boards in the foyer.

WHAT I DIDN'T KNOW UNTIL I HAD KIDS

- How many seconds it takes to microwave 4 fish sticks perfectly.
- How to change a diaper in the dark, in a parked car, on a standing child and all of the above simultaneously.
- Locations of public restrooms all across town.
- How to open a van door while bobbling 2 lunch boxes, two extra coats, a purse, a diaper bag and a baby.
- The fine art of vacuuming a floor without hosing up a Barbie shoe or a Playmobil cannonball.
- That solid white socks get lost in the dryer at a much slower rate than do the mates of patterned socks that coordinate to special outfits.
- How little sleep a human body truly needs to function.
- How to spell amoxicillin, let alone say it.
- That one can never own too many sippy cup lids or refrigerator magnets.
- The distinctive sounds of Cheerios crunching underfoot.
- That gender inequality starts early in clothing: Boy's underpants have a wide band on top, while the waistband and leg holes on girls look the same, increasing the odds that she'll pull 'em on tangles or upside down.
- The blessedness of naps, the inviolate importance of routines.
- How much you could love one human being!
